Are you struggling to pay your rent or utility bills?

GET HELP FOR UP TO 12 MONTHS

Alaska Housing Rent Relief can pay your rent and/or utilities for up to 12 months, including past-due amounts, if you rent your home and are struggling financially due to COVID-19.

Who can get help?

The best way to find out if you qualify is to use our online eligibility checker at AlaskaHousingRelief.org. This program may be able to help pay your bills if you meet certain income criteria and if any of the following describes you:

- ✓ You are struggling to pay your rent and/or utilities.
- ✓ Your housing situation is at risk (for example, you owe past rent or are worried about eviction).
- ✓ You are living in an overcrowded or unsafe situation (such as risk of domestic violence).
- ✓ You are or have been unemployed — or are otherwise struggling to keep up financially.
